

THE LOTUS ASSEMBLY

COMMUNITY OF HEALING AND CONSOLATION

Often, when we receive a request for healing and consolation prayers, we accept it with the best of intentions. However, unless we have practical, specific ways in which to sustain these good intentions, our beneficial action is sporadic and limited.

The Sangha can offer ongoing spiritual support for our teachers, families, and friends (human and non-human), through THE LOTUS ASSEMBLY, A Community of Healing and Consolation.

We will come together once every month to place the names of our loved ones in consecrated Temple Urns, recite prayers, offer mantras, and make vows for their health and wellbeing, whether they are currently ill or have previously departed.

Besides our monthly Healing and Memorial Service, we will have the opportunity to make voluntary commitments, and dedicate the merit to our loved ones. Traditional Buddhist practices include:

Healing Mantras & Prayers
Long Life Practices for Our Teachers & Dharma Friends
Releasing the Departed into Infinite Life-Love-Light
Animal Rescue and Liberation
Transferring and Dedicating Merit to All Beings

We will keep a running record of our joint and individual practice, and communicate it to the greater community, and especially to those in need of healing and consolation, that they may feel spiritually nurtured and supported.
